Vinos Divertidos is a personal project which strives to bring wine and fun together, through surprising indigenous varieties and family micro-wineries. They elaborate wine which communicates personal stories and transmits a joyful and relax philosophy.

The project is a personal journey throughout the Spanish wine regions, in pursuit of the feelings, sensations and moments which each DO and varieties offer. They try to create unusual and quirky wines, which are really easy to drink and invites you to enjoy another glass. We want to be the wine which encourages friends to have an improvised dinner around the table
